About the one-day workshop Participatieverklaring (PV)

From October 2017 onwards, the participatieverklaring (statement of participation) is a mandatory module of the Dutch Civic Integration Program (inburgering). At the end of the workshop the participant will be able to sign the participatieverklaring and bring it home.

Who is eligible?

- You are due to follow the Dutch Civic Integration Program (work, study, family).
- You speak Dutch or English at a minimum level of A1.

Registration fee

Workshop fee is € 150.00, as set by the Dutch government. Participants are due to pay directly to the municipality of residence, possibly via a Duo-loan.

Content

The aim of the workshop is to introduce newcomers to the core values of the Dutch democracy and its Constitution. The workshop provides information about the Dutch political system and civil society. How do both government and citizens put the core values into practice?

Sign Up

You can sign up via the registration form on the website of VluchtelingenWerk. Upon registration, you will receive an automatic e-mail confirming the workshop details.
